The Publisher agrees to grant to the Consortium the non-exclusive and non-transferable right, throughout the world, to give Members and Authorized Users access to the Licensed Materials via a Secure Network, subject to the terms and conditions of this License, and the Consortium agrees to pay the Fee.

3. ACCESS TO LICENSED CONTENT

- 3.1 Authorization for access to the Licensed Materials shall be based upon acceptance by the Publisher of the Consortium's completed order form (for new customers only) and receipt of the Fee acceptance by Consortium of this License.
- 3.2 Access to the Licensed Materials and any applicable online Complimentary Resources is provided via IP address.
- 3.3 Members may use a Secure Proxy Server to permit Authorized Users who are not walk-in users to access the Licensed Materials and online Complimentary Resources from places where these users perform their work or studies (such as homes, offices, halls of residence, and student dormitories). A "Secure Proxy Server" must require authentication (a person must enter a username and password that proves they are an Authorized User permitted to access the Licensed Materials remotely). Access to the site via open proxies and other non-authenticated proxy servers is prohibited.
- 3.4 Publisher reserves the right at its discretion to change the formats in which the Licensed Materials are published with three months' notice of any such change to the Consortium.

- 3.7 Publisher intends for the Licensed Material to be available 24-hours per day, 7 days per week. However, Publisher will not be liable for damages or refunds should the Licensed Material become unavailable temporarily or access to the Licensed Material becomes slow or incomplete due to system back-up procedures, internet traffic volume, upgrades, overload of requests to the servers, general network failures or delays, or any other cause beyond the control of Publisher (including, but not limited to force majeure events, networking problems, IP address changes) which may from time to time make the site inaccessible for Authorized Users. If the Licensed Material cannot be accessed by a Member in conformance with the terms of this License, the Consortium or Member shall immediately notify Publisher and Publisher shall use reasonable efforts to restore access as soon as possible. In the event that Publisher fails to repair access within 48 hours, Publisher shall make adjustments to ensure the Member receives the access Member has paid for under this License upon Member's request.
- 3.8 The Licensed Material will be preserved in CLOCKSS ejournals and ebooks, across a geographically and geopolitically distributed network of redundant archive nodes, located at 12 major research libraries around the world. In the unlikely event of an earthquake or other unforeseen scenario that might otherwise limit access to Science online journals content, it will remain protected and available, via the CLOCKSS network.

4. USAGE RIGHTS

- 4.1 Member and their Authorized Users may make all use of the Licensed Materials and Complimentary Resources as is consistent with fair use under copyright law. Nothing in this License shall be interpreted to limit in any way whatsoever any Member's or any Authorized User's fair use rights under copyright law to use the Licensed Materials and Complimentary Resources.

8. TERM AND TERMINATION

8.1 This License shall be in effect during the 2024, 2025 and 2026 Subscription Years and will then expire unless terminated early as provided below.

8.2.2 Consortium:

9. POST TERMINATION

Except in the case of termination for cause, and with the exception of Science Classic and Complimentary Resources, should a Member discontinue subscription to the Licensed Materials or certain electronic resources comprising the Licensed Materials, that Member shall retain access rights to the portions of the Licensed Materials that Member had access to while Member's subscription was active and in good standing. Provision of the previously subscribed to content will be via mutually agreed upon delivery method for local hosting or by a third-party archiving solution (e.g. Portico) and may be subject to reasonable delivery charges to cover the supply cost as established by Publisher. The use of this content shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the then current operative Institutional License Agreement.

- 9.1 Ongoing Access Rights to Science Classic for Members who make a One-Time Purchase of the Science Classic back issue file: Publisher intends to retain full-text versions of all articles for all issues within Science Classic and to continue to make this database available to all current Members. 10. COPYRIGHT AND PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

Publisher holds the copyright for all works published herein, as a compilation and as to the individual articles, collectively and individually, unless otherwise expressly noted.

11. REPRESENTATION, WARRANTIES, AND INDEMNIFICATION

In no case shall Publisher's aggregate liability for any content or accessibility problems with the Licensed Materials and Complimentary Resources exceed the amount of subscription fees paid for the Licensed Materials during 12-month period preceding any claim or notice of damages.

- 11.2 Neither party shall be liable in damages or have the right to terminate this License for any delay or default in performing hereunder if such delay or default is caused by conditions beyond its control including but not limited to uncontrollable acts of nature, government restrictions (including the denial or cancellation of any export or other necessary license), wars, insurrections, and/or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the party whose performance is affected.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 12.2 The parties agree to use best efforts to resolve disputes in an informal manner, by decision of the Director of Institutional Licensing and the current Chairman of the Consortium. Where the parties agree that a dispute arising out or in connection with this Agreement would best be resolved by the decision of an expert, they will agree upon the nature of the expert required and together appoint a suitable expert by agreement.

13. GENERAL

- 13.1 This License constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes all prior communications, understandings and agreements relating to the subject matter of this License, whether oral or written.
- 13.2 Alterations to this License and to the Annexes and/or Schedules to this License are only valid if they are recorded in writing and signed by both parties.
- 13.3 The Consortium may not assign or transfer its rights under this License without the express written consent of Publisher, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld.
- 13.4 Any notices to be served on either of the parties by the other shall be sent by prepaid recorded delivery to the address as notified by either party to the other as its address for service of notices.
- 13.5 The invalidity or un-enforceability of any provision of this License shall not affect the continuation or enforceability of the remainder of this License.
- 13.6 Either party's waiver, or failure to require performance by the other, of any provision of this License, will not affect its full right to require such performance at any subsequent time, or be taken or held to be a waiver of the provision itself.
